The Nimoy
WELCOME TO THE 2023–24 SEASON

UCLA’s Center for the Art of Performance (CAP UCLA) is dedicated to the advancement of the contemporary performing arts in all disciplines — dance, music, spoken word and theater, as well as emerging digital, collaborative and cross cultural platforms — by leading artists from around the globe.

Our mission aligns with UCLA’s mission of education, research and civic engagement by providing cultural and experiential programs that provoke inquiry and facilitate connection and creativity.

cap.ucla.edu
CAP UCLA’S new home for live performance

It’s an honor and a privilege to welcome you to CAP UCLA’s stunning new home for the performing arts: the UCLA Nimoy Theater. Through our diverse programs, and by providing vital opportunities for artists and partner organizations to develop contemporary work, The Nimoy is poised to make a lasting contribution to the performing arts, UCLA and our Los Angeles communities.

The Nimoy’s inaugural season launches with an interdisciplinary array of projects by influential and groundbreaking local, national and international artists. Together they will share their unique perspectives and crucial visions, creating an opportunity for our audiences to see the world in different and extraordinary ways.

This is your invitation to experience the beauty of sitting in a dark theater, among strangers or loved ones illuminated by the possibilities of the imagination. In this shared space, through the power of the arts, our ideas are challenged and our horizons are broadened — we are transformed.

I look forward to seeing you at The Nimoy!

Program duration: 60 minutes
No intermission
PROGRAM NOTES

FANDANGOS
Choreography: Emilio Ochando
Dancers and Musicians: The Company
Based on traditional folkloric music

TIENTOS
Choreography & Performance: Lorena Franco
A slow moving and emotional driven dance.

SEGUIRIYA
Choreography & Performance: Adrian Dominguez
Siguiriya is a form of flamenco music in the cante jondo - deep song category. This deep, expressive style is among the most important in flamenco.

CANTE Y GUITARRA
Calvin Hazen, Francisco Yiyi Orozco, Manuel Soto

SOLEARES
Choreography & Performance: Fanny Ara
The soleares is one of the most serious and most jondo (deep) palos in flamenco. The name soleares is derived from “soledad,” which means loneliness or solitude and its lyrics often convey themes of romantic tragedy and desolation.

ALEGRIAS
Choreography and Performance: Emilio Ochando
The Alegrias from the port city of Cadiz is full of life and “aire.”

FIN DE FIESTA/BULERÍAS
Dancers & Musicians: The Company
The name Bulerías comes from burlar or to make fun. The flamenco party ends por Bulerías, a “jam session” in which everyone takes their turn to “show their stuff.” The baile por Bulerías (bulerías dance) is one of the most vivacious and difficult dances, and requires a great deal of gracia (grace) and sense of rhythm.

Program subject to change.

ABOUT THE ARTISTS

Carlota Santana (Founder and Artistic Director) Hailed as “The Keeper of Flamenco” by Dance Magazine and honored by the King and Government of Spain with La Cruz de la Orden al Mérito Civil for “all the years of passion, excellence and dedication to the flamenco art,” Carlota Santana is an internationally-renowned flamenco and Spanish dance artist and educator. In 1983, she co-founded Flamenco Vivo with Roberto Lorca; following his death from AIDS in 1987, she was determined to continue their work. In the decades since, she has led Flamenco Vivo Carlota Santana’s growth as one of this country’s most successful flamenco companies, with a mission to promote flamenco as a living art form and a vital part of Hispanic heritage. Under Santana’s artistic direction, Flamenco Vivo has premiered more than twenty original works, offering commissions to numerous flamenco artists from Spain and the United States. Ms. Santana created the company’s innovative arts-in-education program, integrating Spanish dance and culture with academic curricula, and has pioneered bilingual education initiatives targeted to immigrant populations, as well as other programs addressing the special needs of disabled youth. Beyond the company’s on-going work, she has also been the driving force behind a series of unique special projects, flamenco symposia produced in collaboration with Duke University’s Dance Department (2012 and 2015), and the “100 Years of Flamenco in New York” exhibit mounted in partnership with The New York Public Library for the Performing Arts. The first-ever curated museum show on flamenco in the U.S., “100 Years” ran for five months (March-August 2013) in The Vincent Astor Gallery at Lincoln Center; in his review, New York Times chief dance critic Alastair Macaulay praised the “vitality and pride” of the show, noting: “This vivid collection enriches our ideas of both this genre and this city.” Ms. Santana is on the faculty of Duke University, and has taught at Long Island and New York Universities.

Fanny Ara (Dancer) is an internationally-sought after and award-winning choreographer, performer and instructor. Her most dedicated worldwide fans credit her as one of the driving forces of flamenco today. Ara excels in the full spectrum of flamenco, from the most traditional to the avant-garde. Fanny has been an invited artist in national and international festivals and has toured extensively in Canada, Central and South America, the Middle East, Africa and throughout Europe. She has been distinguished since 2006 with nominations from the Isadora Duncan Dance Awards in the categories of Most Outstanding Individual Dancer, Most Outstanding Music, Ensemble and Individual Performance for her project, Juncal Street, and Best Ensemble for her work with the San Francisco Opera in La Traviata. New York’s Vilcek Foundation also awarded Fanny a prestigious finalist prize for “Creative Promise in Dance” in 2012. Fanny’s versatility in the art form of flamenco is manifested in her many artistic works. As Philip Gardner said of her performance at the Joyce Theater in New York City: “My newest love is Fanny Ara ... the captivating expressive qualities of Fanny’s upper body mesmerized us while her footwork dazzled both the eye and the ear ... she soared into the upper most echelon of dance artists I have witnessed over the years.”

Emilio Ochando (Dancer) was born in Valencia and began his training at the age of nine. At twelve he collaborated with the National Ballet of Spain and at sixteen moved to Madrid continuing his training and finishing his studies at the The Royal Professional Conservatory of Madrid “Mariemma.” He has performed with the Companies of Domingo Ortega, Inma Ortega, Malucos Danza, Nuevo Ballet Español (Rojas and Rodríguez), and Aida Gómez and performed in various tablaos, nationally and internationally. In 2013 he created his own company and produced works such as: 3DEUNO and SIROCO. He has choreographed for the Rafael Aguilar Company and for the production of Oh Cuba in Granada at the Generalife. He choreographed Romeo and Juliet for the EBB Company, and “Sin Duda.” for the latest production of the Royal Professional Conservatory, Marienma. He performs workshops and masterclasses traveling to the United States, Canada, London and Europe. During his career he has received many awards: first prize in the international contest of Spanish dance and flamenco city of Almeria, first prize Talentmadrid 2016 and first prize in the Certamen de Baile Español y Flamenco in Madrid in 2016. In 2018, he was a candidate for the 2018 MAX awards for a best male performance and a best new show for SIROCO. Presently, he performs as a guest artist and is touring with his latest 3DEUNO and SIROCO shows. He has performed in festivals such as the Jerez Festival, Suzanne Dellal Festival and Flamenco Madrid Festival, among others.

Lorena Franco (Dancer) began studying dance at the age of five in her home town of Cordoba. She continued her studies there until 2005 when she received a grant to study with the well-known Maestro Granero in Seville. There she also studied with Andrés Marín, Isabel Bayón, Rocío Coral, Matilde Coral, Rubén Olmo, Antonio Canales, Rafael Campallo, Encarna López, Adela Campallo and Eva Yerbabuena, among others. She began her professional career with Eva Yerbabuena in 2006 and worked with her until 2017 as rehearsal director. She then worked with other companies such as Daniel Navarro, Javier Latorre, Andrés Peña, Álvaro Paños, among others. She has worked as soloist in productions of Agustín Carbonell “el Bola” and Manuel Cuevas. She also performs frequently as soloist in tablaos such as Los Gallos in Seville, Las Tablas in Madrid, Los Tarantos and Las Ramblas in Barcelona and in Japan.

Adrian Dominguez (Dancer) studied at the Seville Conservatory of dance from 2007 to 2011 and with Matilde Coral and Manolo Marin, the two most known maestros in Seville, and toured with the dance ensemble Mairena del Aljarafe. Adrian received the First Prize in the youth category in the XXV competition of regional dances in 2008. In 2017, he received the first Prize for Jóvenes Talento from the Cristina Heeren Foundation. He has studied with Juan Manuel Fernández Montoya (Farruquito), Manuel Betanzos, Juan de los Reyes, Alicia Márquez, Rafaela Carrasco, Rosario Montoya (La Farruca), Rafael Campallo, Antonio “El Pipa,” and Andrés Peña, among others. From 2014 to 2017, Adrian resided and performed in tablaos in Madrid such as: Casa Patas, Torres Bermejas, Villa Rosa and La Pacheca. Presently, he is living in Seville performing at tablaos such as Los Gallos and Auditorio Álvarez Quintero, and he is a member of and has toured with the Company of Jose Antonio Ruiz.

Calvin Hazen (Guitarist) has relocated to the United States after twenty years of living and working as a professional guitarist in Madrid, Spain. During this time, he performed at some of the most famous Flamenco Tablaos in Spain, including El Corral de La Moreira, Casa Patas, Las Carboneras, Las Tablas and El Teatro Arenal. Here he had the honor of sharing the stage with such illustrious artists as Jesus Carmona, Manuel Liñan, Carmen “La Talegona,” Joaquin Ruiz and Jeronimo Maya to name but a few. He has performed at some of the most prestigious theatres in the U.S. as well as internationally including Radio City Music Hall and Lincoln Center in New York City, Teatro Nacional in Mexico City and Teatro Madrid in Spain, where his performances have enjoyed enthusiastic critical acclaim. He has worked as musical director and composer for numerous companies including Suite Española, Carlota Santana Flamenco Vivo and Maria Benitez Teatro Flamenco. He is a regular performer and instructor for Festival Flamenco, Albuquerque. Most recently he has worked as instructor and accompanist/composer in the Theatre and Dance Department at UNM.

Francisco Orozco “Yiyi” (Percussionist, Singer) was born in Barcelona to an Andalusian family and was introduced to Flamenco rhythms at the tender age of four. Yiyi was trained by flamenco singer and father “Joselón de Jerez” in his Spanish peña named “Peña Fosforito.” Considered a child prodigy of percussion, Yiyi began his professional career at the age of twelve. By age seventeen, and one CD later, he became more involved with singing, and left Spain for Germany on a long-term contract with the company “Flamenco Rubio.” Since that time, he has performed with “Compañia Flamenca Alhama” throughout Europe and Japan; with María Benitez “Teatro Flamenco” and Domingo Ortega as well as at “Casa Patas” in Madrid; with Jose Greco II; and with world-renowned guitarist Serranito. He has also performed with Alejandro Granados, Yolanda Heredia, El Toleo, El Pelao, María Serrano, La Tania and Antonio Granjero

Manuel Soto (Singer) was born in Jerez de la Frontera in the heart of a family of artists from the Barrio de Santiago. His professional career began at the age of ten, as a flamenco dancer in the Dance Academy of Manuela Carpio. At sixteen, he left flamenco to become the vocalist of a Rock band called “Plashe.” After several years of academic training, he returned to the world of art to devote himself to singing. He has worked with the pianist Rosario Montoya “La Reina Gitana” in her shows from 2003-2009, including the performances in the World Fair of Flamenco (Seville), Caixa Forum (Barcelona), Fiesta de la Buleria (Jerez) and X Festival de Jerez. In 2008, he toured the Italian peninsula with Maria Luisa Sereno Lozano “Chiqui de Jerez” and traveled to the United States with José Porcel in the show Libre Albedrío, performing at the Metropolitan Museum of Art and The Bronx Museum of the Arts among others. He has performed with Carlos Carbonell’s Company in the Festival de Lille (France 2008), in the XIII edition of the Festival de Jerez (2009) with Antonio and Silvia Perujo Company and in the Company of Andrés Peña and Pilar Ogalla. From 2019 until today, he is part of “Maestros Flamenco Online” directed by Manuel Betanzos, an online platform to teach flamenco courses worldwide. He is the official cantaor of the bailaor Eduardo Guerrero. In 2022 he was singer for the bailaor Juan Fernandez’s “De los Puertos” in the Festival de Jerez. He works in tablaos Casa de la Memoria, El Arenal, Corral de la Morería, and Casa Patas.

LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We at UCLA’s Center for the Art of Performance acknowledge the Gabrielino/Tongva peoples as the traditional land caretakers of Tovaangar (the Los Angeles basin and South Channel Islands).

As a land grant institution, we pay our respects to the Ancestors (Honuukvetam), Elders (Ahihirom), and relatives/relations (Eyoohinkem) past, present and emerging.
There is no room for racism, intolerance, or inequity.

Anywhere
Not on our stages, in our offices, on our loading docks, in the box office lines, or on the dance floor.

With anyone
Not with our staff, crew, artists, volunteers, ushers, audiences or fans.

We uphold and embrace principles of antiracism, equity, diversity and AUTHENTIC inclusion as integral to our mission.
We must EMPOWER the historically underrepresented.
We must UPLIFT excluded voices.
We must RESIST structural racism.
We will COMMIT fiercely to our responsibility to observe, absorb, consider, contemplate, endure, share and engage in this change.
We STAND AGAINST all forms of discrimination.
We will STRIVE to make our organization more equitable and inclusive.

As part of UCLA’s School of Art & Architecture (SOAA), we – UCLA’s Center for the Art of Performance (CAP UCLA) and Theater Management Services (TMS) – are committed to connecting and creating space for the arts and for all communities.

We acknowledge our organizations’ histories as being predominantly white institutions.
We are facing uncomfortable truths about systemic racism as we work to make the deep changes necessary to transform the organizational dynamics in our work culture and business practices and dismantle existing oppressive structures. We know there will be shortcomings, which we will face head on. We commit to continually addressing and adapting to changes as they arise. It is only in an improved, supportive work environment that everyone can be fully present, and respected as their true authentic selves.

This statement was drafted by a committee of staff members from both the Center for the Art of Performance and Theater Management Services, from a variety of backgrounds, viewpoints and perspectives.

Together we stand with UCLA’s School of Art and Architecture’s EDI statement.
